

RESOLUTION ON TEACH CSU

(#08-01/02-JT)

WHEREAS, The Humboldt Chapter of the California Faculty Association is sponsoring a Teach CSU project on October 17 to explore how faculty working conditions affect learning; and

WHEREAS, A variety of projects will be addressed during this event, including:

1. The importance of student faculty ratios
2. The role of part-time faculty and the impact increased use of part-time faculty has on the educational mission of the University
3. Trends in budgetary decisions made by the Chancellor of the CSU
4. The relationship between faculty salaries and working conditions on the recruitment and retention of quality faculty; and

WHEREAS, David Noble, well known historian from York University, expert on the history of technology, and co-founder (with Ralph Nader) of the National Coalition for Universities in the Public Interest, will be presenting on the topic of the corporatization of the university; therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Humboldt State University endorse the Teach CSU project as a way of furthering the dialog about teaching and learning, and about the role of the modern university in the 21st Century.