UNIVERSITY CURRICULUM COMMITTEE (UCC)

- Duties:
1. Act as a body which stimulates curriculum development in the colleges and give cohesive force to curricula rather than to act as an initiating unit. Matters pertaining to specific curriculum content should be dealt with at the college or department level whenever possible. Curricula should be initiated by departments and recommended by colleges to college deans.

It is essential that the membership of the University Curriculum Committee take a university-wide perspective during the decision-making process. The special function of the chair of the Educational Policies Committee, in his/her capacity as a member of the University Curriculum Committee, is to communicate items of special interest to the Academic Senate, with particular attention to those deliberations of the University Curriculum Committee, including possible actions concerning implementation and procedure, which might affect curricular policy.

2. Appeals and reviews of lower committee decisions are made to the University Curriculum Committee. Any individual faculty member dissatisfied with any recommendation, including policies, procedures, and guidelines of the University Curriculum Committee, may appeal that recommendation to the Academic Senate. The Senate may in turn transmit its own recommendation to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.
3. Recommend curricular policy for consideration by the Academic Senate.
4. Advise the Vice President for Academic Affairs concerning curricular policy.
5. Advise the Vice President for Academic Affairs on appeals relative to actions taken by college curriculum committees.
6. Advise the Vice President for Academic Affairs on curricular matters affecting more than one college.
7. Advise on broad curricular matters referred to it by the Vice President for Academic Affairs.
8. To review programs developed in colleges to insure that they meet the curricular and programmatic policy of the University.
9. Engage in program review as required.
