EMERITUS FACULTY

Emeriti faculty and staff are considered an important and integral part of the university community. The University recognizes the benefits and privileges of continued participation of retired faculty and staff in the academic life of the institution. Emeritus status may be granted to any academic, administrative, staff or faculty member upon the written recommendation by a personnel committee, Department Chair, Supervisor in their academic unit or working unit, or Cal Poly Humboldt Emeritus and Retired Faculty and Staff Association subsequent to the approval by a majority of the University Senate.

Recommendations for conferring emeritus status shall be based upon: retirement from the California State University; having provided ten or more years of full-time service or its aggregated equivalent at this campus; and meritorious contributions to teaching, scholarship, and/or service to CSU. In special circumstances, the University Senate may award emeritus status to faculty or staff with less than 10 years of cumulative service.

The Purpose of Cal Poly Humboldt is to provide the highest quality and affordable education built on the contributions of diverse students, staff and faculty who are committed to a just and sustainable world.

In special circumstances the Provost may withhold the awarding of emeritus standing for cause. A history of conduct or behavior that contravenes basic university policies or the university purpose, vision or core values and beliefs, including serious criminal offenses, fraud, or Title IX violations, is cause for denial of Emeritus status. Individuals involved in ongoing investigations for such conduct or behavior are not eligible for emeritus status until the conclusion of the investigation\(s\). Provost/VPAA/HR will notify the nominees who are being denied emeritus status. Nominees who have been denied can appeal to the President by providing supporting documentation within 14 days. The President's decision regarding the appeal is due to the applicant within 30 days from the date of appeal.

Emeritus faculty are expected to have demonstrated a continuous commitment and contribution to the Purpose, Vision, and Core values of Cal Poly Humboldt. A history of conduct or behavior that that contravenes basic university policies or values, including serious criminal offenses, fraud, or Title IX violations, is cause for the revoking of Emeritus status. Emeritus status may be revoked by recommendation by the Emeritus committee \(comprised of the University Senate Chair, the Cal Poly Humboldt ERFSA President, and the VPAA or designee\). A person whose emeritus status has been revoked may appeal to the President for reinstatement. Individuals with concerns about the process of their nomination are encouraged to discuss these matters with a CFA faculty rights chair.

Emeritus Status – Benefits

The University should, so far as space, resources, and priorities permit, offer amenities to emeritus faculty and staff to recognize their continuing membership in the university community, including but not limited to: an invitation to join the Cal Poly Humboldt Emeritus and Retired Faculty and Staff Association \(ERFSA\), whereby other benefits may be sustained; listing in the program of the commencement ceremony closest to their retirement; an invitation to participate in department, school/college and university functions, such as convocation, commencement, and other celebrations; services normally extended to active faculty and staff, including an email account, , parking, and the same discounts available to active staff and faculty for use of campus recreational facilities, activities and cultural events, and resources.

Faculty and staff emeriti may place the Latin designation emeritus or emerita following the title of their highest academic or administrative position on official correspondence, (i.e., Professor Emerita, Professor Emeritus, or Lecturer Emeritus, Lecturer Emerita, Librarian Emerita, Librarian Emeritus, Counselor Faculty Emeritus, Counselor Faculty Emerita, Coach Emeritus, Coach Emerita, Staff Emeritus, and Staff Emerita); academic faculty emeriti will be listed in a position of honor on a prominent University website and in appropriate University publications.

The University should, so far as space, resources, and priorities permit, offer amenities to assist faculty emeriti in their scholarly or professional pursuits, including but not limited to: the assignment of an appropriate office space if available and access to equipment or services; the right to compete for research grants through the Sponsored Programs Foundation; use of the library; attendance at department faculty meetings as ex-officio, non-voting members with floor privileges; the same discounts for use of academic resources such as books and software as active faculty; eligibility for the appointment and/or election to faculty committees; and free parking.

Decisions about the provision of resources should be broadly consultative and should include officials from affected units (i.e., Chairs when Department resources are involved, Deans when college resources are involved, etc.).

In special circumstances, the University Senate may award emeritus status to faculty or staff with less than 10 years of cumulative service.

Emeritus status may be revoked by a majority vote of Senate when the title holder has been found guilty of a significant criminal offence or with fraud, or has been found to be engaged in activities which have brought disrepute to the University. Prior to such a vote, the involved individual or their representative(s) are entitled to present a written defense to the University Senate. A person whose emeritus status has been revoked may appeal to the University Senate for reinstatement, which may be conferred by a majority vote.
