

RESOLUTION TO REFRAIN FROM PARTICIPATION
IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF CORNERSTONES INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LEARNING OUTCOMES
AND ASSESSMENT PLAN DEVELOPMENT
(#22-98/99-EX)

WHEREAS, The people of California “. . . have a fundamental interest in the development of harmonious and cooperative labor relations between the public institutions of higher education and their employees.” (HEERA, Section 3560 (a)); and

WHEREAS, This harmony has been seriously disrupted by Chancellor Reed and the California State University Board of Trustees’ March 17, 1999 unilateral imposition of terms and conditions of employment on faculty; and

WHEREAS, The Academic Senate of the California State University has resolved to take no additional action and urged campus senates to take no such action on the Cornerstones implementation plan until a new contract between the California State University and the California Faculty Association is approved (see resolution AS-2436-98 below); therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Humboldt State University will refrain from participation in the implementation of Cornerstones, and urges all faculty to withhold their labor from those tasks that are necessary to the implementation of Cornerstones, including but not limited to learning outcomes and assessment plans, until a new contract between the California State University and the California Faculty Association is approved.

AS-2436-98/Floor (Meyer-Phillips)
November 5-6, 1998

Cornerstones and the Contract

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of the California State University take no additional action and urge campus senates to take no such action on the Cornerstones implementation plan document or, if passed by the Trustees, their implementation steps until a new contract between the California State University and the California Faculty Association is approved.

APPROVED – March 11-12, 1999

RESOLUTION TO REFRAIN FROM PARTICIPATION
IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF CORNERSTONES SUCH AS LEARNING OUTCOMES
AND ASSESSMENT PLAN DEVELOPMENT
(#22-98/99-EX)

WHEREAS, The people of California " . . . have a fundamental interest in the development of harmonious and cooperative labor relations between the public institutions of higher education and their employees." (HEERA, Section 3560 (a)); and

WHEREAS, This harmony has been seriously disrupted by Chancellor Reed and the California State University Board of Trustees' March 17, 1999 unilateral imposition of terms and conditions of employment on faculty; and

WHEREAS, The Academic Senate of the California State University has resolved to take no additional action and urged campus senates to take no such action on the Cornerstones implementation plan until a new contract between the California State University and the California Faculty Association is approved (see resolution AS-2436-98 below); therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Humboldt State University will refrain from participation in the implementation of Cornerstones, and urges all faculty to withhold their labor from those tasks that are necessary to the implementation of Cornerstones, such as learning outcomes and assessment plans, until a new contract between the California State University and the California Faculty Association is approved.

AS-2436-98/Floor (Meyer-Phillips)
November 5-6, 1998

Cornerstones and the Contract

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of the California State University take no additional action and urge campus senates to take no such action on the Cornerstones implementation plan document or, if passed by the Trustees, their implementation steps until a new contract between the California State University and the California Faculty Association is approved.

APPROVED – March 11-12, 1999