
Grade Appeal Policy

[VPAA 22-01]

Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs

Applies to: Faculty, staff, students, and administration

Supersedes: UML 00-01 and Appendix R of the Faculty Handbook

Purpose of the Policy

Consistent with CSU Executive Order 1037, Cal Poly Humboldt~~Humboldt State~~ University has adopted policies that provide for the redress of student concerns about certain academic decisions made by faculty. The following procedures, which implement said policies, are established pursuant to authority assigned to the Grade Appeal Committee and are administered by the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Students may elect to use these procedures when they are unable to resolve academic disputes with members of the faculty.

The purpose of this policy is to establish fair and equitable means by which ~~matriculated~~ students may appeal assigned course grades and other ~~a~~Academic decisions. Complaints other than discrimination or unprofessional conduct against faculty, staff, or administrators~~Non-Academic grievances filed by matriculated~~ students should follow the procedures outlined in the Student Grievance Procedures (University Management Letter 00-01). Charges of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation filed by students or applicants for admission to the University are addressed in a separate policy accessible on the University's Discrimination, Harassment, & Retaliation webpage.

Definitions

A “grade appeal” is a complaint about a final course grade, which involves one or more of the following conditions, the existence of which the student is required to prove:

1. The instructor violated a specific University rule or policy.
2. The instructor refused to correct a clerical or administrative error made in the process of transmitting a grade to the Office of Admissions and Records.
3. The instructor ~~failed~~ ~~refused~~ to report any grade at all for the individual student.
4. The grade is based on an allegation of cheating or other academic dishonesty, and the instructor has chosen not to request formal disciplinary action with the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

5. The grade is based on an allegation of cheating or other academic dishonesty and, pursuant to the student disciplinary process, it has been determined that (a) there was insufficient evidence to proceed with formal disciplinary action or (b) the student was found innocent of the charges.
6. The grade reflects threatening, abusive, exploitative, or similar personal, improper conduct towards the individual student.
7. The instructor assigned the grade in error, with prejudice or capriciously.

I. Important Clarifications Pertaining to Grade Appeals

It is important for students to know that, in accordance with the policies of the California State University, the Grade Appeal Committee must presume that an assigned grade is correct. Therefore, it is the student's responsibility to prove that the final course grade is ~~incorrect improper~~ based on one of the criteria listed above under the definition of "grade appeal." The Committee's authority in cases involving a grade appeal is very specific and limited to the conditions included in the above definition. The ~~CommitteeBoard~~ cannot tell an instructor that they have graded an exam too harshly; or that their standards are too high; or that particular ~~assignmentsassignment~~ are unreasonable; or that other classroom practices or expectations applied to the class as a whole are unfair. These are all matters of professional judgment, which, if consistent with applicable campus policies, are entirely within the prerogative of the instructor. Concerns about such matters should be discussed with the instructor and, if necessary, the appropriate ~~d~~Department ~~e~~Chair or ~~C~~college ~~associate d~~Dean (or delegate).

II. Responsibility of Grading

~~Instructors Faculty members at Cal Poly Humboldt-Humboldt State University (HSU)~~ have the sole right and responsibility to provide clear grading criteria, careful evaluation, and timely assignment of course grades ~~and feedback~~. It is assumed that the grades assigned by ~~instructors faculty members~~ are free from error, prejudice, or capriciousness. In the absence of compelling reasons to believe that one of these criteria is missing, the grade assigned by the instructor of record is to be considered final and correct. It is the responsibility of anyone appealing a grade to demonstrate otherwise.

III. Students Right to Appeal a Final Course Grade

Students shall have the right to appeal the final course grade issued by an instructor(s) if the student has reason to believe that the grade is based on any of the grounds set out in section IV. Grounds for Appeal of this policy. Grades assigned due to a finding of student academic misconduct are not eligible for appeal, consistent with the grounds and procedures set out in the Cal Poly Humboldt+HSU Academic Integrity and Honesty and Integrity Policy (VPAA 21-02), the CSU Code of Student Conduct, and Title 5 of the

Commented [1]: Academic Honesty Policy: "When a faculty member discovers a potential intentional violation of the University's policy of academic integrity, the faculty member is required to notify the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, in accordance with Executive Order 1098, and the student(s) involved to ensure that repeated violations do not go undetected if they occur in separate departments or with different faculty."

Faculty shall submit an Academic Dishonesty Referral to the Office of Students Rights and Responsibilities within one week of notifying the student of the discovery of the event for which they are being penalized and the penalty. At faculty discretion, a grade of "F" may be given for the assignment or examination, or another grade penalty may be applied at the discretion of the instructor. In the event that the academic dishonesty results in the failure of the course, the instructor will report a grade of "FD" to the Registrar's Office. Additional disciplinary sanctions may be determined by the Dean of Students should the student have documented prior incidents of academic dishonesty that have been reported to the Office of Students Rights and Responsibilities. If a student is successful in their appeal through EO 1098, they may then contest the underlying charge of academic dishonesty through the Student Grievance Policy."

Commented [2]: Academic Honesty policy: "Faculty will take measures to discourage dishonesty, adjust grades appropriately if dishonesty is discovered, and recommend that additional administrative sanctions be considered."

IV. Grounds for Appeal

The course grade assigned by the instructor of record is to be considered final. If a student believes that the final grade issued is based on instructor or clerical error, prejudice, capriciousness, arbitrariness or is not in alignment with established grading criteria in the course syllabus, the student may file an appeal, but only after the process described in V.b Guidelines has been exhausted.

Allegation of discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation affecting grade assignments shall be referred to the campus Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation Administrator for investigation and be processed in accordance with CSU Executive Order 1095, 1096, 1097 \(Interim CSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Exploitation, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Stalking, and Retaliation\), which states:

... the grade appeal procedure should be paused until such time as the campus investigation and any appeal process under these procedures have concluded. The determination whether a violation occurred under the Policy will be provided to the campus grade appeal committee, and the committee will be bound by the determination when the grade appeal process resumes under Executive Order 1037.

~~...the Campus grade appeal procedure shall be placed in abeyance until such time as the campus and any appeal process under Article VI and/or Article VII have concluded. The final determinations under this executive order regarding whether Discrimination, Harassment or Retaliation occurred will be provided to the Campus grade appeal committee.
