Resolution Approving Area Specific Student Learning Outcomes for General Education and All-University Requirement

14-16/17-GEAR – March 7, 2017 – Second Reading

WHEREAS: A companion proposal outlines an overarching GE Program SLO that simultaneously satisfies Executive Orders (EO) 1061¹ & 1100² in addition to the unique Diversity and Common Ground (DCG) requirements at HSU.

RESOLVED: In addition to the overarching GE SLO and its accompanying assessment plan, area-specific SLO are proposed as described by EO 1061 & 1100, where language for development of Freshman Year Experiences (FYE) in Area E is included as well as amendments to Area C2 Humanities to allow future double counting in American Institutions. An appendix that summarizes the changes is also included.

¹EO 1061: Graduation Requirements in United States History, Constitution and American Ideals

²EO 1100: General Education Breadth Requirements

Proposed Area Specific SLO

The following area specific SLOs are taken from EO 1061 & 1100, where descriptions developed from the EO are included to define each GE area.

Area A-English Language Communication and Critical Thinking

Minimum 9 semester units (one course in each subarea)

A1: Oral Communication (3 semester units)

A2: Written Communication (3 semester units)

A3: Critical Thinking (3 semester units)

Students taking courses in fulfillment of sub-areas A1 and A2 will be able to:

- Develop knowledge and understanding of the form, content, context, and effectiveness of communication.
- Develop proficiency in oral and written communication in English, examining communication from rhetorical perspectives, and practicing reasoning and advocacy, organization, and accuracy.
- Practice the discovery, critical evaluation, and reporting of information, as well as reading, writing, and listening effectively.

- Actively participate and practice both written communication and oral communication in English.

Students taking courses in fulfillment of subarea A3 will be able to:

- Understand logic and its relation to language; elementary inductive and deductive processes, including an understanding of the formal and informal fallacies of language and thought; and the ability to distinguish matters of fact from issues of judgment or opinion.
- Develop the ability to analyze, criticize, and advocate ideas; to reason inductively and deductively; and to reach well-supported factual or judgmental conclusions.

Area B-Scientific Inquiry and Quantitative Reasoning

Minimum of 12 semester units (3 must be at the upper division level*)

One course each in subareas B1, B2, and B4, plus laboratory activity related to one of the completed science courses.

B1: Physical Science (3 semester units)

B2: Life Science (3 semester units)

B3: Laboratory Activity (associated with a course taken to satisfy either B1 or B2)

B4: Mathematics/Quantitative Reasoning (3 semester units)

Students taking courses in fulfillment of subarea B1-B3 will be able to:

- Develop knowledge of scientific theories, concepts, and data about both living and non-living systems.
- Apply and evaluate scientific principles and the scientific method.
- Apply and evaluate the potential limits of scientific endeavors and the value and ethics associated with the human conditions and the natural world.

Students taking courses in fulfillment of subarea B4 will be able to:

- Explain and apply basic mathematical concepts and solve problems through quantitative reasoning.
- Develop skills and understanding beyond the level of intermediate algebra.

* The following majors have Upper Division Area B requirements incorporated into the major requirements: Biochemistry and Chemistry, Biology, Fisheries Biology, Kinesiology,

Oceanography, Rangeland Resource Sciences, Physics and Physics Astronomy (BS options only)

Area C-Arts and Humanities

Minimum of 12 semester units (3 must be at the upper division level)

Coursework that exclusively emphasize skills development are excluded from Area C; however, activities may include participation in individual aesthetic and creative experiences.

At least one course completed in each of these two subareas:

C1 Arts: Arts, Cinema, Dance, Music, and Theater

C2 Humanities: Literature, Philosophy, and Languages Other than English

Students taking courses in fulfillment of Area C will be able to:

- Cultivate intellect, imagination, sensibility, and sensitivity.
- Develop an understanding of the integrity of both emotional and intellectual responses.
- Cultivate and refine their affective, cognitive, and physical faculties through studying art, history, philosophy, literature, and great works of the human intellect.
- Develop a better understanding of the interrelationship between the self and the creative arts and of the humanities in a variety of cultures.

In addition to the above outcomes students taking courses in fulfillment of Area C 1 will be able to:

- Demonstrate depth and breadth of knowledge of the intellectual, imaginative, and cultural elements of the creative arts through the study of and participation in drama, music, studio art, and/or creative writing.

In addition to the above outcomes students taking courses in fulfillment of Area C 2 will be able to:

- Demonstrate depth and breadth of knowledge of the historical, intellectual, imaginative, and cultural elements of the humanities through the study of history, literature, philosophy, and language.

Area D-Social Sciences

Minimum of 12 semester units (3 must be at the upper division level)*

Courses that emphasize skills development and professional preparation are excluded from Area D. Coursework taken in fulfillment of this requirement must be taught from more than one disciplinary perspective dealing with human social, political, and economic institutions and behavior and their historical background. Students learn from courses in multiple Area D disciplines that human social, political and economic institutions and behavior are inextricably interwoven.

Students taking courses in fulfillment of Area D will be able to:

- Analyze social phenomena from multiple disciplinary perspectives.
- Analyze social phenomena considering contemporary, historical and cultural contexts.
- Apply the principles, methodologies, and ethics employed in social scientific and historical inquiry.

Area E Lifelong Learning and Self-Development

Minimum 3 semester units

Courses in Area E may follow a Freshman Year Experience (FYE) design to equip learners for lifelong understanding and development of themselves as integrated physiological, social, and psychological beings.

Students taking courses in fulfillment of Area E will:

- Explain and demonstrate an understanding of the nature of being human as an integration of physiological, psychological, and sociocultural influences.
- Demonstrate a preparation for the lifelong and complex process of self-understanding, self-analysis, and self-development as an individual among others.

American Institutions

Minimum of 6 semester units*

At least one course completed in each of these two subareas:

United States History

U.S. & California Government

Students taking courses in fulfillment of U.S. History will be able to:

- Explain significant events covering a time span of at least 100 years of U.S. history, including the relationships of U.S. regions and relationships with foreign nations.
- Analyze the role of major ethnic and social groups in the significant events above, and the contexts in which those events have occurred.
- Explain how these events illustrate both the continuity of “the American experience” and its derivation from other cultures by considering at least three of the following: politics, economics, social movements, and geography.

Students taking courses in fulfillment of U.S. & California Government will be able to:

- Distinguish the key philosophies of the framers of the U.S. Constitution.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the nature and operation of major U.S. political institutions and processes.
- Identify the liberties, rights, and responsibilities of citizens under the political system established by the US Constitution.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the California Constitution and state and local government within the framework of evolving federal-state relations.

*Students may elect to use one institutions course to substitute one course in D6: History or D8: Political Science. Only one institutions course can be used to satisfy GE Area D requirements. See List of American Institutions courses.

Diversity & Common Ground (DCG)

Minimum of 6 semester units

At least one course must be designated domestic DCG.

Students taking courses in fulfillment of DCG will be able to:

- Analyze the complexity of diversity through the perspective of differential power and privilege, identity politics, and/or multicultural studies.
